   Em              D
1. While Kansas city sleeps
   G                 C                 Em
   cloaked in the twilight of this valley
   D              C
   at this churches lying roadside from a tree
   Em       D         G         C          Em
   I keep driving to the most desolate seclusions
   D                 C
   my blackest secrets still imprison me

   Bm    C           Bm           C
X: And why don't we say what we really feel?

   G                     Em
R: Whenever things are at their best...
   D                  C
   whatever lies will help you rest
   G                    Em
   whenever things are at their best...
   D                          C
   why do we wait for it to fall apart?

Em
fall apart

2. Welcome to the after-taste of cheap wine and bad decisions
   my heart trembles in this morning prayer
   I can't chill my eyes from this inner most seductions
   but still somehow you found me there

X: And why...

R: Whenever things...

   Am                    C                      Bm
*: It's my mistake to say I'm not the world safest bet
   D                  Am                        C
   I've never been too good at being good and its probably sad to say...

R: Whenever things... (2x)
