Shattered Grounds

Elegant Machinery

I feel like a man without a face like a foregner at this place when you are standing by my side I am completely in control with a tighter grip around my soul there's no way out, there's no return I thought I was dreaming when I found myself screaming hurt by wounds
that I've recived from you CHORUS
I can't really understand why you talk the way you do when I'm lying here on this shattered grounds No I can't really understand why you do the things you do to leave me all alone on these shattered grounds You are the one that i adore the keeper of a secret lore playing with danger, playing with tears You are a complicated case no-one could ever take your place my life is kept within your hands I thought I was dreaming
when I found myself screaming
hurt by wounds
that I've recived from you REPEAT CHORUS
