When Alone

4Lyn

Somebody told me it's written in stone Fool, you can't be in lo ve when alone! I love the stillness in the air Calm when no one
's there Nor worries, no cares when alone Enjoy the peace and p rivacy No games or rivalries I have no other needs when alone f ade out the sound Fade out the noises Fade out the crowd Fade o ut the voices

Love seems so much easier when alone But life is so much pretti
er when you're home

I love to listen to my thoughts No secrets to guard I never get bored when alone I love the freedom and the space No hurry, no chase It's a wonderful day when alone

So fade out the lights Fade out the tension A day full of blith e Without attention

Love seems so much easier when alone But life is so much pretti
er when you're home
