After Forever

A lonely heart can beat
A lonely heart can bleed
A lonely heart can be
Enclosed but isolated
A lonely heart is weak
A broken heart will see
Its broken promises
My faith is broken forever

Can't you believe that this power within can be for real?
It smothered my skin but light now seems to freeze, but why?

A lonely heart won't break
A lonely heart won't forsake me
A lonely heart can be broken to pieces but still not defeated
So if it's all for real
The own heart should be melting
Because we're all the same
Beloved and burning forever

Can't you believe that this power within can be for real?
It smothered my skin but light now seems to freeze, but why?

Won't you believe?
Won't you embrace it?
Can't you believe?
The power between us!

Won't you believe?
Won't you embrace it?
Can't you believe?
The power between us!

Can't you believe that this power within can be for real?
It smothered my skin but light now seems to freeze, but why?
