

Hey being born in this world what is it that you live for?
Soonif fate is accepted what kind of tomorrow would surely visit

(Groan of pain) the heart is torn; a wound without discrimination the pain leaves behind a deep scar (Key word) the pain that was forgotten by you in time hides in the exit of the wandering heart
It cannot be forgotten

The tears that repeatedly fall; the TATTOO engraved
by errors
Do the oath of living for tomorrow like always the TATTOO of silent love that is thoroughly engraved (Blind hold) While pretending that it cannot be seen that kind of reality you single-handedly distorted tomorrow (Glow up) Then, this kind of everyday passes by full of boredom, don't you agree? You prepared yourself to take off the blindfold (Glow up tomorrow)

There are no mistakes which are not permitted; the red TATTOO begins to throb Silent love and TATTOO would surely make wet cheeks be able to smile tomorrow Are you still hurting?

Everlasting this is your kindness and your hatred Everlasting this pain fell asleep until that day

(Groan of pain) Everybody's eyes were closed; the truth was plainly written on their faces (Groan of pain) Those who ridicule someone else's problems will suddenly feel like they wish for it (Groan of pain) I don't want to get hurt, I don't want to get hurt; for everyone, oneself is important (Groan of pain) Protect yourself

The tears that repeatedly fall; the TATTOO engraved
by errors
Do the oath of living for tomorrow like always for the silent love that is engraved

If the time comes should you lose your way I want to tell you these words
So that you will surely be able to laugh tomorrow so that you will always be able to laugh tomorrow

I don't forget this pain all the time
