Hold Back the Night

Giant

I've been looking for an answer in the sky
Can you hear me? 'Cos I need a reason why

I think I'm in trouble, with my heart out on my sleeve
So I'm calling, 'cos I need her as I live and breathe Don't let the sun go down, 'cos tomorrow she'll be gone

Give me one more day and I'll make her stay, hold back the nigh t
If you're really there and you hear my prayer, hold back the ni ght
Hold back the night, oh the night

Every minute, it gets closer to goodbye Can't you give me just a few more hours to change her mind Don't let tomorrow in, 'cos I just can't face it alone

Give me one more day and I'll make her stay, hold back the nigh
If you're really there and you hear my prayer, hold back the ni
ght

I watch the light fading to black I'm counting on you to build me a bridge, so I can bring her ba ck

Don't let the sun go down, 'cos tomorrow she will be gone

Give me one more day and I'll make her stay, hold back the nigh
If you're really there and you hear my prayer, hold back the ni
ght
(One more day, make her stay) hold back the night
If you're really there and you hear my prayer, hold back the ni ght
