Mysteria

The Rasmus

Chase your star
Hide your scar
From the marching cavalry

Take your place
And save your race
Break the chains of misery
(Mysteria)

Nine months back
The sky grew black
With the clouds of agony

A windless dawn
A girl was born
To mark the end of tragedy
And turn the course of destiny

Mysteria
Just remember who you are
Mysteria
You’re the girl behind the scar
Mysteria
Just remember who you are

The journey
You’ve taken
Forever
Forsaken

The answer lies
Beneath your eyes
Just rise up against the pain

No more tears
No more lies
Take the fallen through the rain
Make the world recall your name

Mysteria
Just remember who you are
Mysteria
You’re the girl behind the scar
Mysteria
Just remember who you are

The journey
You’ve taken
Forsaken
Mysteria...
