So Far

Roger Whittaker

So fary, oh so fary,
So fary, oh so fary,
So fary, oh so fary,
So far away.

I lay me down I feel so tiered.
It's been so long, since I rested up
And I try to carry on.
I lay me down and sit beneath
An old thorn tree and I wonder why,
She made such a fool on me.

I've come so far and I followed my heart,
Travel so far, travel so far.
It's not so easy to follow your heart,
When you don't know,
When you don't know the reason to be a part.

So fary, oh so fary,
So fary, far away.

I came so far to find my dream, my hope of light.
Now I lay me down with my world so full of strife.
She lift's me up, she puts me down, now I don't know.
Oh I've come so far but there's still so far to go.

I've come so far and I followed my heart,
Travel so far, travel so far.
It's not so easy to follow your heart,
When you don't know,
When you don't know the reason to be a part.

I've come so far and I followed my heart,
Travel so far, travel so far.
It's not so easy to follow your heart,
When you don't know,
When you don't know the reason to be a part,
When you don't know the reason to be a part.

So fary, oh so fary,
So far away.
