

Forgive me if I don't jump for joy
Like I used to, when I was a boy
Bear with me if I don't sound inspired
When I speak of love, the words are sounding tired

Ooh 'cause you're everything that matters
The only one that's on my mind
And this new love is real as all
But it's not the first time
And this new love is real as all
But it's not the first time
