

God Complex

40 Below Summer

This is a question of your will
Or you have to be burn down
And the future that I build
I will have no deception
And if the sky begins to burn
And the world closes to end [?]
Forever I will ride [?]

So stand up and die
If you've got nothing to live for
Lay down and die
Because I motherfuckin said so
So stand up and fight
I'll give you something to die for
You will obey
Because I said so

Are you ready to bleed?
Are you ready to die?
Are you ready to show them what it means to be a winner

I'm gonna take your life
If you're not prepared to kill (for me)
Get ready motherfucker
Cause this is not a drill
You'd better be as cold as ice
Cause if you won't you never will
You better get with the program
This is not a drill
This is not a drill
This is not a motherfuckin drill

This is a prophet [?]
And you will take the loss
For the prophecy fulfilled
I will enter tomorrow
Inside a [?]
There's finally a rest
Your search of purpose
Well now others will follow

So stand up and die
If you've got nothing to live for
Lay down and die
Because I motherfuckin said so
So stand up and fight
I'll give you something to die for
Lay down for me
Because I said so

This is the will of your god
And not the words of a fraud
Now stand up for me and bleed like I told you

I'm gonna take your life
If you're not prepared to kill (for me)
Get ready motherfucker

Cause this is not a drill
You'd better be as cold as ice
Cause if you won't you never will
You better get with the program
This is not a drill
This is not a drill
This is not a motherfuckin drill

And I will dig deep inside of you
And reach a heart that beats for nothing
And I will rebuild you just like new
And then destroy you and build another

I am your messiah, your tyrant, your king
Your savior, destroyer, your new regime
I am your prophet, your killer, your king
Your new world order, your ruler supreme
