

M.O.N.E.Y.

4Lyn

I've laid my eyes on you for way too long. So seductive, so destructive I know my grip on you was way too strong. Life's wasted, in decay. Babe, this love is just so wrong!

I'm saying bye bye M.O.N.E.Y. Maybe not a king but I can smile.
I'm saying bye bye M.O.N.E.Y. Hands in my heart, head in the sky. No more lovesongs for you

Whenever I held you you've treated me well, but when you went out my life dragged to hell So addicted, so convicted. I've had my mind on my money and money on my mind You're the best looking threat for all mankind. I stopped glorifying it. Because my heart's not buying it

I'm saying bye bye M.O.N.E.Y. Maybe not a king but I can smile.
I'm saying bye bye M.O.N.E.Y. Hands in my heart, head in the sky. No more lovesongs for you

No more lovesongs for you, no more
