

Break The Silence

50 Lions

For too long, we've ignored the signs, too long spent biting tongues, turned our backs, we walked away, left alone with nothing to say, now we've faced with decisions, and problems that built up in time, never listened to those things, that we never wanted to hear,

SMASH THROUGH! the lies and deceit, REVEAL the hardest truths, question the most convincing facts, break the silence that holds us all.
BACK!!!

holds us, back!!!
holds us all back!
