

What more can he do,
Tell me what more can he do?
He sent loving arms down from the sky,
'Cuz he cares so much for you and I.

Never in my imagination,
Did I ever see so clearly,
Someone who has a concern for my life,
'Til your love came and found me.
You loved me when I didn't even love myself,
A love that will be there when there's nobody else.
So with my voice I'll sing this little song of praise,
'Cuz when I think of what he's done all I can say...

Really didn't have a reason,
To love me so much right from the start.
I haven't done a lot of things that I'm proud of,
But that isn't the way of your heart.
Why me is what I keep on asking myself,
You could've given this gift to anyone else.
But you made me realise that I was special too,
And that is something that you didn't have to do.

Don't know why he loved me,
Don't know why he cared.
Even though I really didn't deserve it,
I'm so glad that he did.
