

Heart of the night, in silent skies
I watched the rain fall in the streetlight
I'm hypnotised by your sweet smile
Clear as a picture in my mind's eye

I'd do anything to have you here
Do everything to dry your tears
Baby baby won't you understand
Can you forgive me for the love I let slip through my hands

Baby we're worth one more try (can't you see)
Deep inside my soul is dying
Only you can breathe new life
Baby we're worth one more try

I can't deny a thousand times
I left you all alone, like a lost child
I sacrifice to rectify
To heal the hurt that I still see in your eyes

I'd do anything to have you here
Do everything to dry your tears
Baby baby won't you understand
Can you forgive me for the love I let slip through my hands

Baby we're worth one more try (can't you see)
Deep inside my soul is dying
Only you can breathe new life
Baby we're worth one more

The carnival carousel on Freemond Street where we would meet
Those days just seem so out of reach
I hear your voice as I go to sleep, still haunting me
You hold the key to set me free, can't you see

Baby we're worth one more try (can't you see)
Deep inside my soul is dying
Only you can breathe new life
Baby we're worth one more try
Baby won't you listen to me
Baby we're worth one more try (can't you see)
Deep inside my soul is dying
Only you can breathe new life
Baby we're worth one more try
Only you can breathe new life
Baby we're worth one more try
