

Home Is Where The Heart Is

A Change of Pace

say something anything right now you know im choking on how bad it hurts
to say goodbye
trust in the words i say to you its killing me to see you desperate believe in what you want just tell me how long it takes until im in the right place

here we go again
im happier without
but its all over now
im ready to go
im ready to go
ready to find a way some how
im ready to go
im ready to go
ready to leave it all

i know youre choking
on how bad it hurts
to let us go
cry yourself asleep again tonight write a note sent with yours love from everyone everyone

just tell me how long it takes

but its all over now
im ready to go
ready to find a way some how
im ready to go
ready to leave it all behind you build me up can't break me down ill find a way to leave this town and nothing good youll ever say will stay with me

please stay with me
(2x)

stay with me

all behind
