

My Apology

A Life Divided

And no-one cares
The fall is mine
And black clouds
Shine down on me
Relentlessly
Heart of hope
Is broken now
It has grown old
Since this life is without you
Through and through

If I hurt you I didn't mean to
Please forgive me, I beg you
And if I hurt you I didn't mean to
Please forgive me, I beg you

Here I stand
Another way
Leads to the end
And all the doors
Are closed to me
Eternally
Sweetest love
Where are you now?
Could you tell God above
That no-one could have Saved my soul
But you for sure
