Path Of Resistance

A Perfect Murder

Darkness calling I always succumb to it Undeniably falling Will I ever win? Can I overcome, or will rage swallow me whole?

Is there a day that I will break? Not as long as I feel alive Not as long as I continue survival

Light falling, sometimes it shines down on me Feelin' so much smaller, when I fail to believe in me So dead inside

Path of resistance grows stronger

Is there a day that I will break? Not as long as I feel alive Not as long as I continue to survive
