

I'm Afraid Of Losing You

A Rocket to the Moon

I don't know how to speak for anyone but myself.
You see darling there is nothing I can say that will save you anyways.
I'll scream loud at the top of my lungs tonight,
'Cause you know you will always be my light
Shooting stars could never be this bright
Do you know you will always be my light?

Screaming out your name
I'm not used to this
There's no turning back
There's no going home.

I won't breathe until you just tell me everything's alright,
I am not scared of losing this
I'm afraid of losing you
I'm sorry that this will not end,
But I can't find the strength to speak,
'Cause on the calender of your events,
I'm last week...

Keep your eyes closed and we'll make it through another day alive
But if we sit here thinking
We're just wasting precious time.
So instead of thinking that we're dead
Let's take apart what we have left
Lay it out in front of us
And take the things that we don't trust...

Screaming out your name
I'm not used to this
There's no turning back
There's no going home...

I won't breathe until you just tell me everything's alright,
I am not scared of losing this
I'm afraid of losing you
I'm sorry that this will not end,
But I can't find the strength to speak
'Cause on the calender of your events,
I'm last week...

I don't know how to speak for anyone but myself.
You see, darling, there is nothing I can say that will save you anyways.

I won't breathe until you tell me everything is alright,
I am not scared of losing this
I'm afraid of losing you
I'm sorry this will not end
But I can't find the strength to speak
'Cause on the calender of your events
I'm last week...

Darling, there's nothing I can say that'll save you anyways.
