Starbucks

She's over it, she cannot take no more yeah Don't wanna quit but that's a pretty nice door yeah I got a bed, it really cost a fortune I go away and it's too big without you You've got it good, you know how good we've got it You've got it bad, you know how bad we've got it

I wouldn't swap it for a job in Starbucks Wouldn't swap it for a job in Starbucks

Come on, you can have your own way Come on, you can have your own say So long, I'll miss him when he's gone You don't know what it is, you don't know what it is yeah

He works on automatic Mr. Clean but i doubt it He's got to have his say Who needs him anyway?

Don't get your kind of music He lets the others choose it He thinks you kids are freaks He wants you on the streets

Come on, you can have your own way Come on, you can have your own say So long, I'll miss him when he's gone You don't know what it is, you don't know what it is yeah

Come on, you can have your own way Come on, you can have your own say So long, I'll miss him when he's gone

You don't know what it does to me You don't know what it means to me

I take it as far as it goes (I don't wanna know what I know) It's too late to talk about it I ain't changing any of it Don't listen to us

Don't want your job in Starbucks Don't want your job in Starbucks Don't want your job in Starbucks Don't want your job in Starbucks

Come on, you can have your own way Come on, you can have your own say So long, you miss it when it's gone You don't know what it is, you don't know what it is yeah
