

Under The Blue Moon

Aaradhna

As the wind blows
And the sun goes
Down into the dark skies
I'll been missing my darling
I'll been missing my darling
Under the blue moon

Leaves in the wind is swept away and scattered
I'm hoping
And I'm praying
And I'm wishing
That it's true for me and you

Because I'm patiently waiting
Just sitting you waiting
Under the blue moon

Feel like I'm close to you
When I kiss the sky

I'm dreaming of the love that was in my life, I'm
I'm hurting baby
There's a pain in my heart

Because I'm patiently waiting
Just sitting you waiting
Under the blue moon

As the wind blows
And the sun goes
Down into the dark skies
I've been missing my darling
I've been missing my darling
Under the blue moon

I've been patiently waiting
I've been missing my darling
