God's Death

Absurd

Die by the demon, die by my hand God is so mightless - I can't understand

Satanic laughter fills your ears Did you ever so what hear Your brain explodes, i suck your blood

Your body - rotting in the mud You can't stop the great ABSURD Know that the truth sometimes hurts

The truth is that God soon will die Although he is the almighty
He's got the might to die himself
The creation raises against its creator
