

New Management

Across Five Aprils

Suffer me.

This is the last time that I hold myself from anger.
There is no such thing as a one true love.
I'm constantly looking towards something better.
It makes no sense for me to look above.

Baby Rosemary, what have you brought today for me?
This life has nothing for me tell me if you're up to trade.
I'll take anything you offer, cause today I'm feeling brave.

Oh tell me if you are willing, cause I want the finer things.
I'll take this gift you're giving and take all the hell it brings.

I want to be the star in the middle of your everything.
I wanna be the one who owns you, I want to be your king.

Dark night, dark sky.
I'm ready for your offer, serve it to me, silver plate.
This is the feast of ages, tonight we dine on perfect hate.

Oh tell me you are willing. cause I want the finer things.
I'll take this gift you're giving and all the hell it brings.
I wanna be the owns you, I want to be your king.

I want you to suffer, suffer, suffer.

Hey there, it's me, I'm just still looking for a trade.
The deal I have is not working he never even hears me speak,
And with this new lack of concern, it's new management I seek.

Oh, tell me you are willing, cause I want the finer things.
I'll take this gift you're giving and all the hell it brings.
I wanna be the star in the middle of your everything.
Be the one who controls you, I want to be your king.
Suffer unto me.

I want to see you suffer unto me,
Cause I'll be the new designer.
I gave you everything.
You gave away.
I gave you everything.
One thing to say.
Suffer unto me.
