B F B F
When I wake up in the morning I smell your smell
B F B F
God knows that i'm not doing well
B F B F
You're my Clementine, my sweet sunshine
B F B F
A sparkling diamond in your eye

Cmi B
Bleeding heart, my bleeding Heart
Cmi B
Won't you cut out my bleeding Heart?
Cmi B
Over the mountains by the sea and the shore
Cmi F
I hope you come knocking at my door

Baby baby let's live in a shoe
And I'll tell you some things that I used to do
You're a broken book, a thievin' crook
You stole my heart with just one look

Bleeding heart, my bleeding heart
Won't you cut out my bleeding heart?
Over the mountains by the sea and the shore
I hope you come knocking at my door

You take my stuff and you make me blue
You've got me so goddamned subdued
And every day i hope and pray
You'll stay with me while the skies are grey

Bleeding heart, my bleeding heart
Won't you cut out my bleeding heart?
Over the mountains by the sea and the shore
I hope you come knocking at my door
