

Whole Town Talking

Adam Hood

Lately I've been down in the deep end,
Doing way too much drinkin,
Everyone thinks I've lost my mind.
I guess they don't know how tough,
Losin the woman you love,
Can make it on every day of your life.
(Chorus)

It's a little bit hard to take when,
The heart you left here breakin,
Has got the whole town talking bout me
I went out last Monday evening,
I heard she flew in to Macon,
I guess she didn't even try to call.
That's when I really broke down,
They finally had to run me out,
I was getting sad tearing out the walls.

Chorus

And maybe she'll come back someday,
Before they put me away,
And that might be the saving grace I need.
