Open my eyes
Lead me into the light
Make the gates of Hell
Close forevermore

I was betrayed
Taken in to a war
Didn't want to fight
This warfare no more

The radiance of pure reality
Guiding me to the world beyond my grave
The gallery of pictures that don't exist
Alluring bright light guiding my unworthy eyes

I'm floating between light and dark
Surrounded by peace and calm
Will my end be a new beginning?
Inception of truth
This I know

When I was young
My near-life experience showed
I lived a lie
Shrouded from my eyes

In the vortex insane
I plunged to my final battles
Before finding peace and refuge in your arms

The radiance of pure reality
Guiding me to the world beyond my grave
The gallery of pictures that don't exist
Alluring bright light guiding my unworthy eyes

I'm floating between light and dark
Surrounded by peace and calm
Will my end be a new beginning?
Inception of truth
This I know
