

Bark at the Moon

Aesthetic Perfection

I've spent my whole life
Trying to be someone
Yes I've spent my whole life
Trying to seize your love
So I rant and I rave
Like a rat in a cage
And I wonder "am I getting out?"
So I bite and I bleed
And I'm bearing my teeth
No I can't stop now

So I bark at the moon
I'm letting my demons out
Yes I bark at the moon
I'm letting the real me out
So I bark at the moon

I've waited so long
To finally free myself
Yes I've waited so long
To feel the release from hell
So it's setting the sun
And the change has begun
In the darkness I die to come out
No I'm not on the run
I can't wait to be done
With the lies I tell

So I bark at the moon
I'm letting my demons out
Yes I bark at the moon
I'm letting the real me out
When the lights go out
Disguise is down
I'll finally be myself
Yes I bark at the moon
I bark at the moon

When I howl I feel so fearsome
When I howl I feel so free
To be me

So I bark at the moon
I'm letting my demons out
Yes I bark at the moon
I'm letting the real me out
When the lights go out
Disguise is down
I'll finally be myself
Yes I bark at the moon
I bark at the moon

I'm runnin'
I'm runnin'
I'm runnin' away
