

If I Die

Aesthetic Perfection

I'm waiting
For an execution
I'm praying
For the phone to ring
I'm begging
Making restitution
One day
Yes
I'll be at peace

I waltz towards my destiny
Tick tock the clock is beckoning
Oh god
What will become of me?
My head's inside the guillotine
Deny my own mortality
I pray the lord my soul to keep

If I die today
Who'll remember me?
If I die today
Will no one know?
If I die today
Who'll cry for me?
If I die today
Will no one know?

I'm calling
Out for heaven's mercy
Free falling
From father's grace
A warning
As I drop the curtain
In torment
Eternity

I waltz towards my destiny
Tick tock the clock is beckoning
Oh god
What will become of me?
My head's inside the guillotine
Deny my own mortality
I pray the lord my soul to keep

If I die today
Who'll remember me?
If I die today
Will no one know?
If I die today
Who'll cry for me?
If I die today
Will no one know?

If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today

Oh when it's time
I hope that I'm
I'm not forgotten or despised
Oh when it's time
What will I find?
That life's the sentence for my crime

If I die today
Who'll remember me?
If I die today
Will no one know?
If I die today
Who'll cry for me?
If I die today
Will no one know?

If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
If I die today
