

Lights Out (Ready To Go)

Aesthetic Perfection

Run away run away run away from you
If you could read my mind you'd get the truth
It's gone on for nights
You've given up, don't be shy
I get it know its time to see this through
Turn the lights down (baby im ready to go)
I want it right now everything is out of control
I kinda like how loving you is so horrible
Oh baby im ready to go
Waiting up waiting up waiting up for days
You turn me inside out
I'm on display
So I draw the veil
Avoiding this bed of nails
Annoyed when it, just relax it will be okay
Turn the lights down baby I'm ready to go
I want it right now everything is out of control
I kinda like how loving you is horrible
Oh baby I'm ready to go
I run away from a love
What I'm I running from
I think I need this visage
Wonderful sabotage
Run away run away
Run away run away
(How can you do this to me?)
Turn the lights down baby I'm ready to go
I want it right now everything is out of control
I kinda like how loving you is horrible

Oh baby I'm ready to go

Turn the lights down baby I'm ready to go

I want it right now everything is out of control

I kinda like how loving you is horrible

(Never lie down lie down lie down)
