

No Boys Allowed

Aesthetic Perfection

There's no boys allowed

Do you hear it?

That's the sound of my patience running out

Can you feel it?

It's the beat of my pulse and pounding heart

We all want to feed

When someone pays

What's it worth?

Equality

We got just one rule

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

Do you see it

Its the sight of the magic wearing off

Will you read it

When i write that you're being written off

We all want to face

That no one's safe

We all stand in insecurity

We got just one rule

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed

I'm not man just a boy like they wanted

I'm not man just a boy like they wanted

I'm not man just a boy like they wanted

I'm not a man, not a man, not a man, go!

There's no boys allowed

There's no boys allowed
