

Flowers

Agnes

Uh
Ah-a-ah
Yea-ea-ea-ea-eah

Uh
Ah-a-ah
Yea-ea-ea-ea-eah

I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers

(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

I just realize
How many times
You've been walking out the door
In anger

Always something
That I say (yeah)
But I never meant to hurt you

But baby
You know that I loved you
You know that I do

But...
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers

I just have to face
All the different ways
You've been telling me
That I was wrong now

I can't understand
Why do you cry
But I never meant to hurt you

But baby
You know that I loved you
You know that I do

But...
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers

I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers

Everything you've got
Is everything I want
I just couldn't ask for nothing else
No no no

But baby
You know that I loved you
You know that I do

But...
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers
I'm screaming at you
When I should give you flowers

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
