

wash out your eyes
you've seen the dirty place I can't disguise
all of my longings

sometimes in the night
I feel your breathing and I want to eat your light for you to be inside me where's my head I swear I saw it rolling over there

I'm falling further than I have ever been

horizon's on fire

I'll find a hiding place I can't deny
all of your longings

the flame is getting low and you're in my window if you can find me now you can have my body

where's your head
I swear I saw it
you're burning brighter than I have ever seen
