

Sorrow Boy

Akron/Family

sorrowed boy
with so much mind
you look so tired
with glassy eyes
your quiet pain
i feel the hum
beneath the surface
a steady drum
you're like a child
when you've been wronged your heart is aching
but you're still strong
come back alive
when stars collide
you can feel the universe
behind your eyes
and you find your body
in between the waves
a sonic haven
for the lonely days
your mood so mellow
how your colors bloom
you steal the evening
from an empty room
and i might not of seen you if i looked too hard
but i just gave up
and here you are
you'll sweet the sound
and break the melody
that was already broken now it's fixed for me

not everyone's the way you are you are a blood star
