

L. A.-L. A. You're the Sunny Side

Al Martino

All things are possible baby
Come go with me
It's like an endless fire
From here to eternity
Oh, when my baby cries for more
I'm knockin on forbidden doors
And if there's one thing that I know for sure

You're my sweetest baby
My day and night
And when I leave you
I feel blue
Oh, breaking up is hard to do
I'll give my heart, my soul, the sun
L.A. L.A. here I come

It's just like paradise
Don't have enough arms for you
All day and overnight, baby, I live for you
Oh, I don't care if the sun don't shine
Oh, I don't care as long you're mine
'Cause I know I'm drawning in your
