Catalina on a fishing boat
We call it Henry Cisneros
We got no money but we stay afloat
The jellyfishes don't scare us

You're telling everybody life's a ball Too many pleasures to mention You do a cartwheel in the shopping mall You seem to get their attention

In your red toupee
In your red toupee

You take your number to a Broadway play It keeps her well out of danger You're blowing bubbles in the matinee You never looked any stranger

In your red toupee
In your red toupee

People say that you're unusual You just tell them they're confused If only they were more like you They'd brighten up their day

In your red toupee In your red toupee

Promenades in furs and laces People put on airs and graces Bedroom eyes in boardroom faces Oh where will it lead

To Catalina on a fishing boat We call it Henry Cisneros We got no money but we stay afloat Those jellyfishes don't scare us

In our red toupees
Oh we got our red toupees
In your mauve toupee
Turquoise toupee
In your green toupee
Cerise toupee
Why are you wearing that strange toupee
My God, a cormorant just flew by!
