

More to Life

Albert Hammond, Jr.

You called me up for this illusion
Would you think that I
Would be unimpressed
Everyday you send confusion
Such delusions
The money's all that's left
But it's alright by me
Yes it's alright by me

So tonight be yourself
Let the music make you someone else
Not my world is what you'd say
Doesn't mean we can't feel this way
More to life than 9 to 5
When your world's a party every night

Everyday we get invited
Cause every night we're on TV
Living it up at the hotel
Everyone can see
That it's alright by me

Cause it's one, two, what to do
Oh I want something new
Oh I want something to do
No one's messing with me

So tonight be yourself
Let the music make you someone else
More to life than 9 to 5
When your world's a party every night

So tonight be yourself
Let the music make you someone else
More to life than 9 to 5
When your world's a party every night

So tonight be yourself
Let the music make you someone else
Not my world is what you'd say
Doesn't mean we can't feel this way

You know the game is something we all do
There's more to life than what we thought we knew
I hope to see you on the other side
My life with you makes me feel alive
