

When All is Said and Done

Aldo Nova

Sunshine, comes out from my hands
The moon that's in his eyes
Turns blood into sand
He put poison in the water
And I watched my children die
He spread lies and confusion
Now my sons and daughters cry, they say

Lord, can you help me
I'm cold and so alone
Now I pray because one day
I let the darkness take control
Come and defend me
There's no way I could have known
But don't you worry my time has come
And I'm here to save your soul

Ah, when all is said and done
They call me mighty, mighty
And I've already won
Ah, when all is said and done
Well, I'll go down to hell
Take care of him myself
Then he will be gone, huh!

The sunshine, that comes out of my hands
Will blind him till he dies, then he'll crawl in the sand

In the holy water
I'll drown him till he burns
Even though he has no soul
He's gettin' paid for what he earned
Pain, disease, corruption
He brought into this world
But when I come
He's gonna have to run
Because there's nowhere left to turn

Ah, when all is said and done
They call me mighty, mighty
But I've already won
Ah, when all is said and done
Well, I'll go down to hell
Take care of him myself
Then he will be gone

Lord, come and help me
Now children don't you cry
Come and listen to my voice
Because you know that I don't lie

Ah, when all is said and done
Well, they call me mighty, mighty lord
And I've already won
Well, I'll go down to hell

Then he will be gone
