

Nintendo Game

Alessia Cara

Choose your weapon and let's go
Who's gonna beat this level?
I speed up, you slow down
Looks like I'm on your tail now
Another round, do we give up?
This is taking longer than Zelda
Hold on, what I meant was
Is it too late to get a one up?

Baby, baby, baby, this is getting too crazy
I don't have the training
Baby, baby, baby, this love ain't a game
So we should stop playing

Push and shove, go ahead and take your aim
We better duck, 'cause right now nobody's safe
And we could grow up, but it's no fun that way
And so we treat love like it's a Nintendo game
But nobody wins

(Nobody wins)
(Nobody, nobody wins)
(And so on, the game goes on)

All the trash talk is getting real old
I'd rather try my hand at Rainbow Road
I'm focused, on my next move
But you're onto me so it's no use
It's a showdown, a game for two
Pick each other's brains looking for clues
A battle with no objective
Who will be the final one standing?

Baby, baby, baby, this is getting too crazy
I don't have the training
Baby, baby, baby, this love ain't a game
So we should stop playing

Push and shove, go ahead and take your aim
We better duck, 'cause right now nobody's safe
And we could grow up, but it's no fun that way
And so we treat love like it's a Nintendo game
But nobody wins

(Nobody wins)

Push and shove, go ahead and take your aim
We better duck, 'cause right now nobody's safe

Push and shove, go ahead and take your aim
We better duck, 'cause right now nobody's safe
And we could grow up, but it's no fun that way
And so we treat love like it's a Nintendo game
But nobody wins
