

A Man Who Finds Jesus

Alex G

You're on my flight
L.A. to Denver
A couple years since I
Let you go for better
And you wait for me
To get off the plane and remember you
And you're thanking me
For telling you no 'cause it saved you

But I gotta know if
You ever wonder how I live
Or am I just part of your redemption
Am I your answered prayer?

Cause my heart is aching
From all the love you are taking
Exists just to feed your addiction
Here, take a little more

And you're sober now
That's what you told me
You said I taught you how
To grow into something
But you're 35
And you still throw it back like a frat boy
Oh but you'll be someone
Cause we all love a man who finds Jesus

But I gotta know if
You ever wonder how I live
Or am I just part of your redemption
Am I your answered prayer?

Cause my heart is aching
From all the love you are taking
Exists just to feed your addiction
Here, take a little more

I gotta know if
You ever wonder how I live
Or am I just part of your redemption
Like an answered prayer

Cause my heart is aching
From all the love you are taking
Exists just to feed your addiction
Here, take a little more
Here, take a little more
