

Pray It Away

Alex G

Dear anyone
I grew up believing that you were the one
But now I'm afraid that the doubting has won
Either way, I'm scared of you

The breaking is loud
I'm terrified of what I'm thinking about
Maybe you'll hear if I say it out loud
Or maybe the silence is truth

Oh I just want to know

Are you making
Space for my saving?
Or am I breaking?
Should I pray it away
Pray it away?

Dear anyone
Is it really you throwing punches at us?
Or throwing us out when we're coming undone?
Cause I'm so afraid to be wrong

The voices are loud
They're saying I'm dirty and going to hell
I'm starting to think I am screwed up as well
I just wanna know if it's true

Oh I just wanna know, I just wanna know

Are you making
Space for my saving?
Or am I breaking?
Should I
If you made me
Why do they hate me?
Never been this free
Why would I pray it away
Pray it away?

Dear anyone
I'm not really sure if I'm getting it right
But since I've been real I've been coming alive
I think that you'd say the same too
