Everybody's Laughing

This house is your own, Still living alone It don't make you sad, But I think it's good to be green. This summer is gone, And spring don't belong, The traces are here, For long winter, I miss the green, It used to be clean. Chorus: If you wanna be free, Please don't fall for me, I could be anyone but your friend. If you open the door, I'll give a whole lot more, I could be anyone, anyone, Yeah. Assumption is good, Though not likelyhood, My feeling is true, I wanna be living with you. The truth it begins, We're breathing it in, With shadows of doubt, In time we will all miss the green, It used to be clean. Chorus If you wanna be free, Please don't fall for me, I could be anyone but your friend. If you open the door, I'll give a whole lot more, I could be anyone but your friend. Anyone, anyone, Anyone, nah nah nah no Anyone, anyone, Anyone, yeah. If you wanna be free, Please don't fall for me, I could be anyone but your friend. If you open the door, Ill give a whole lot more, I could be anyone but your friend. Anyone, anyone, Anyone, nah nah nah no Anyone, anyone, Anyone, yeah Seeing is believing, The feeling is deceiving, You know it's the truth When you find that you can't talk. Leaving on this, All into chaos Seeing is feeling is Seeing is feeling is you Feeling is you woah
