

Dead End

Alex Winston

When it comes, you got the right to hold on me
In the night, we fall so easily

See you feel it; I never asked you to

I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
I don't wanna lead you down on the road
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather go
I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
Out in the cold
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather know, know, know
My memories

There's a line
I wanna cross it and do time
If there is time
I'm growing tired of it
(I'm growing tired of it, I'm growing tired of it, I'm growing tired of it)

When I feel it, you didn't want me to

I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
I don't wanna lead you down the road
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather go
I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
Out in the cold
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather know, know, know
My memories

I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
I don't wanna lead you down the road
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather go
I don't wanna be your dead end, honey
Out in the cold
I don't wanna hit no dead end running
Should've left you, cause I'd rather know, know, know
My memories