I let you fool me, believed you cared. Pretty words, misled me How could I be so blind.

Pretty words
Feelings of love making feelings of hate
You don't deserve a tear that I shed
Wish i had the strength to turn my back
But you always know what to say.

I swore that no one would hurt me like this apart for your lies, no more. I fight for me, only me yeah

Pretty words
Feelings of love making feelings of hate
You don't deserve a tear that I shed
Wish i had the strength to turn my back
But you always know what to say.

Now I'm getting stronger,
I'm starting to see that
You're not the one I thought you'd be
Just get the hell away from me yeah

Pretty words, aah Pretty words, aah

Pretty words
Feelings of love making feelings of hate
You don't deserve a tear that I shed
Wish i had the strength to turn my back
But you always know what to say.
