

Wake Up, Sunshine

All Time Low

Alive in the age of outrage
And outrageous behavior
They say it's a calling
Are you living well in a living hell

So smile for the cameras
And say that your life ain't as tame as the ones you're shit-talking
Are you living well
Are you living well

Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you for yourself
Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you

You're pissing away
Every day's a cliché
And they say if you're bored
then you're boring
Are you living well in a living hell

Are you living well
Are you living well

Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you for yourself
Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you tonight

Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you for yourself
Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you

Everyone wants to be somebody
I just want you to see how good you are
You don't have to lean on the crutch of a daydream
To see that you shine like a star

Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you for yourself
Wake up, Sunshine
'Cause somebody loves you
'Cause somebody loves you

Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you for yourself
Wake up, Sunshine
Somebody loves you
Somebody loves you tonight

Are you living well
Are you living for yourself
