Remember yesterday
On and on we're walking on this road of gold
It's time to leave, we're ready to escape our owns
This starts to churning
We're on our way, just to remember every single day
So on and on, to places were we can't be found

They're calling us away
And we ain't gonna stay
Before we get to walk here, what stories to be told
With fire in the faith
To an empty page
Tomorrow is too late to remember yesterday
Remember yesterday
Remember yesterday
Remember yesterday

Hold tight, and sigh
The hidden so it blues the time
The first step we take may be the longest try
This starts to churning
We're on our way, just to remember every single day
They said, this stage, a giften on a given lights

They're calling us away
And we ain't gonna stay
Before we get to walk here, what stories to be told
With fire in the faith
To an empty page
Tomorrow is too late to remember yesterday
Remember yesterday
Remember yesterday
Remember yesterday

They're calling us away
And we ain't gonna stay
Before we get to walk here, what stories to be told
With fire in the faith
To an empty page
Tomorrow is too late to remember yesterday
