

What Was I Drinking

Alle Farben

What was I drinking, thinking I could just forget you?

So here I am, missing you tonight
And it was my idea, that we should say goodbye
Now I'm a little drunk, blowing up your phone
But you're not picking up and I'm down here all alone

Raise a glass, raise a glass to the broken hearts
Tip it back, tip it back, now the whole bar

What was I drinking, thinking I could just forget you?
(Forget you, how could I forget you?)
What was I thinking, drinking all night long about you?
(Without you, I don't know how to)

Nothing strong enough to ever drown you out
Yeah I'm on the rocks, you got me spinning round
Looking back, how good we used to be
I'll try again but there's no remedy

Raise a glass, raise a glass to the broken hearts
Tip it back, tip it back, now the whole bar

What was I drinking, thinking I could just forget you?
(Forget you, how could I forget you?)
What was I thinking, drinking all night long about you?
(Without you, I don't know how to)
Whiskey, gin, red wine, tequila, beer, rum
I sipped a little everything under the sun
What was I drinking, thinking I could just forget you?
(Forget you, how could I forget you?)

Raise a glass, raise a glass to the broken hearts
Tip it back, tip it back, now the whole bar
Raise a glass, raise a glass to the broken hearts
Tip it back, tip it back, now the whole bar

What was I drinking, thinking I could just forget you?
