

Bittersweet

Allen-Lande

As the snow is falling down
I remember the time
When you almost beat me down
With your lies and twisted games
There was nothing but your blame
It didn't need to be that way
All the lies you told me
Hatred spew like venom
From a poison sea

You're bittersweet
You will stay alone here
Condemned eternally
Your bitter lies
Will not take me by surprise
I'm so happy without you
I'm not bearing your cross
I'm not taking your loss
You mean nothing to me
The beauty of this winter day
Is contrary to the way
Everything in you so dark
All the lies you told me
Hatred spew like venom
From a burning sea

You're bittersweet
You will stay alone here
Condemned eternally
Your bitter lies
Will not take me by surprise
I'm so happy without you
I'm not bearing your cross
I'm not taking your loss
You mean nothing to me
The beauty of this winter day
Is contrary to the way
Everything in you so dark
All the lies you told me
Hatred spew like venom
From a burning sea
