

The Great Divide

Allen-Lande

Sometimes I feel alone
The days turn to nights, so cold
Sometimes I cry your name
Tonight again
The flame
The great divide
My heart is breaking in two
The great divide
Before the fall
Yeah, the great divide
Apart, I shrivel, I shake
The great divide
When life is left behind me
When the dark brings light that blinds me again
After all

You're part of a dying soul
Too late, too late to make it whole
Ah yeah
Oh, the great divide
My heart is breaking in two
The great divide
Before the fall
The great divide
Apart, I shrivel, I shake
The great divide
That much more to take
My heart will break
Ah
This heart is breaking

The great divide
My heart is breaking, breaking
The great divide
Before the fall
Yeah, I wish I could fly
Away, from hell to heaven
Come through divine
I'll shine
This evil play inside

When life is left behind us
When the dark brings light that blinds us again
And forever we are caught between Inside this killing time machine and the great divide
