

never cared if I was acting dumb never made me want to hide and run always took the time to ask what's wrong never made fun of my favorite song now i gotta be the one to leave guess it's better but I still don't see ain't it funny how it never turns out right but I would never cry for my freshmen girl now she's crazier than John D. drinking alchohal and smoking pot wants to know if it was day or night that's why i asked her if she feels alright
now i gotta be the one to leave
ain't it funny how it never turns out right
never took the time to ask what's wrong never made fun of my favorite song
ain't it funny how it never turns out right
