

The Sign of Glory

Almah

Dive into the fire
And tell me how it seems
Colder than the flames of the evil heart
To inner dreams just rise burning crystal eyes
Running through the night
Burned all your beliefs
You play all innocence
'Cause you feel is time (all periods)
You rise and you feed your life
You're dreaming, just a dreaming
You can't hide

Sanctuary gates will show you
Everything that lies inside you, over
The rainbow wings, the sign of glory
Sanctuary gates will show you
Everything that lies inside you
Over is day

Secret as a silence
And thoughts running free
Riding unicorn blowing in your heart
Your faded
Don't cry when you face the dark
You're dreaming, just a dreaming
You can't hide

Sanctuary gates will show you
Everything that lies inside you, over
The rainbow wings, the sign of glory
Sanctuary gates will show you
Everything that lies inside you
Nowhere is day

Look out
