

Love Comes Home

Aloe Blacc

My heart strings are connected
To the people I love most
They keep pulling me back home
To share the joy and be close
Now there's beauty all around us
Open up your eyes and you'll see
All the smile on all the faces
In the race of humanity

If there's one thing I can be sure about
Without a doubt
It's that love comes home for the holidays
Yes it does, ooh yes it does
If there's one thing that I know
Let me tell you so
Love comes home for the holidays
Yes it does, yes it does

No matter where I venture
Or how far away I stray
Please know that I'll return somehow
I'll surely find a way
Cause the only thing that matters
In this life is life itself
And spending time with loved ones
To make sure the love is felt

If there's one thing I can be sure about
Without a doubt
It's that love comes home for the holidays
Yes it does, ooh yeah
If there's one thing that I know
Let me tell you so
Love comes home for the holidays
Yes it does, yes it does
